Our Clients

"As a commercial Facility Manager, finding the right contractor for large-scale projects is one of the toughest parts of my job. They have always delivered high quality work. I would not hesitate to recommend them to any commercial Facility Manager when it is time for any interior or exterior painting."

Gary MacDonald, Facility Manager
CB Richard Ellis

"It has been my pleasure to work with Painting Canada. Painting Canada has completed several painting projects in our commercial buildings, I was impressed enough to use them to work at my home. They are always professional."

Dave Blanchard,
Vice President
Wilson Blanchard
Management Inc.

"I would like to recommend Painting Canada. We have had numerous rooms painted and repainted over the years and receive nothing but compliments. The crew is very professional and have a great eye for detail. They are efficient and work diligently without supervision."

From front office to factory floor

Painting Canada is your commercial and industrial painting specialist.

Most surfaces require maintenance and protection. Heavy equipment, machinery and routine use causes wear and tear on your buildings surfaces. Maintenance and aesthetics may not be the only reason to paint; an application of fresh paint will help with reflection of light and create a brighter more pleasant workspace.

Metal structures and equipment within your facility need to be cleaned, maintained and painted. Your investment in our services will help curb corrosion and increase longevity.

We understand the importance of not disturbing our clients' routines. Our team of professional painters are available after hours and on weekends to complete your project. Our expert capabilities can fulfill an array of commercial and industrial painting needs. Please inquire for a free on-site quote.

We're prepared for your success

Proper surface preparation is imperative to the longevity of all our projects. A variety of methods are used while preparing surfaces for paint, including: power washing, steam cleaning, sandblasting, etc. In all cases, surrounding surfaces are protected.

We are capable of working in any industrial situation, including difficult-to-access and high-level interiors and exteriors. We specialize in high volume spray paint and conventional brush & roller techniques. Painting methods of each surface are selected in the interest of efficiency, coverage quality and speed.

Sam Mattina, Owner

With a crew of 12, many of whom have been with him for 18 years, Sam can be found on the job site, often with a paint brush in hand. Having established an impeccable reputation for excellence, Sam and his crew pride themselves on their professional, industry-leading expertise. Exceeding the customer's expectations is their main goal.

When he's not painting, Sam enjoys coaching his kid's hockey, basketball and soccer teams. He plays hockey when he finds the time, and continues to painstakingly restore his family's heritage home, located in Hamilton's historic Southwest neighbourhood.

Sam's commitment to family and community, his dedication to staff, his experience and expertise combine to ensure that Painting Canada is the only choice for customers expecting an outstanding, professional job completed on time and on budget.
